

The image shows a handwriting practice grid with 10 rows. Each row is labeled on the left with 'cap height', 'x height', and 'baseline'. The grid consists of solid lines for the top and bottom of the cap height, a dashed line for the x height, and a solid line for the baseline. The area between the top and baseline lines is shaded gray. The grid is tilted at an angle.